*, The title of "Captain Molly" is derived from an incident in the history of the American Revolution, a sketch of which is interweven with the eighteenth chapter of this volume.

If it be thought that the life of the heroine is too dramatic to be natural, let it or emembered that in the period when she lived eventful experience was much more frequent than in later times.

While we believe that courage and patriotism are commendable in woman, and that she should endeaver to be equal to whatever exigence may arise before her, we no less believe that he is especially designed by her Creator to hallow and make becarful in the sphere of home, rather than to flourish on the arena of stric and flinstrious vents.

AMERICAN WATCHES—To the TRADE.—
A Three Watches are made by the aid of new and original machinery and tools expressly designed to secure with a low price a fine, substantial and correct time keeper. The movements are new, simple and beautiful in plan and construction, remarkably easy of spair, and have been pronounced by the ablestchronometer and watch-makers to be faultiess in principle and quality, and by all who have used them to be resident in the foremence. Each one is engraved "Appleton, Tracy & Co., whither Mass," and is accompanied by a certificate of genus increase and perpetual warranty over our written signature. We sak no man to buy these Watches merely because they are of American manufacture. We ask only that this fact shall not be permitted to exclude them from consideration. We claim that Watches oqual in quality and merit cannot be chained so cheep in Europe; and we ask our countryment of given the standard of the same of t
